From Revelation to Construction

READ IN WEB • Exodus 25:8–9, 40 · Exodus 31:1–6 · Exodus 39:42–43 · Luke 14:28–30

Read the pattern

God gives Moses a pattern for the tabernacle. Follow the movement from the instruction in Exodus 25 to the skilled people named in Exodus 31 and the inspection in Exodus 39. The same story holds revelation, practical ability and accountability together. When you consider an assignment, write what you believe has become clear and mark what you are still deciding. That distinction allows you to revise your plan as you learn.

Identify what the work requires

Bezalel and Oholiab bring wisdom and craftsmanship to the work. The materials and the skills have a purpose within the pattern. List the people, tools, time and money your next step requires. Write down what you can do yourself, what requires help and what is still beyond your current capacity. Read Luke 14:28–30 in its context of counting the cost of discipleship, then apply its image of sitting down before you build to the work in front of you.

Build and inspect

Moses examines the work against what was commanded. Choose a point at which you will review your first step. Did it serve the people you intended to serve? Did you keep your commitments? What did you learn about the scale, timing or form of the work? Bring those observations back to prayer and counsel before expanding.

Practice and reflection

Practice · Write a one-page plan

Suppose you have carried a desire to help women study Scripture in community. Write the purpose in one sentence and name who would benefit. Choose a first step you can complete with existing resources, such as preparing one discussion guide and asking two willing readers to try it. Decide how long you can spend on it, what help you need and when you will review their feedback.

If the idea is still unclear, your next faithful step could be a conversation, a week of prayer or a small piece of research. Record what would give you enough clarity to proceed. If your next step is clear, put it on your calendar and tell the person who will help you review it.

Course reflection

Look back through your five lessons. Write one sentence on how your posture has changed, one prayer rhythm you will keep, one interpretation you are willing to hold loosely and one responsibility you can carry faithfully. Give your next step a date. Leave space to record what happened and what you would do differently.

Lord, give me wisdom to build carefully, receive help and review the work honestly. Keep my obedience close to You and let what I build serve the people You have entrusted to my care. Amen.

Scripture readings

Exodus 25:8–9, 40

8 Let them make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I show you, the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all of its furniture, even so you shall make it.

40 See that you make them after their pattern, which has been shown to you on the mountain.

Exodus 31:1–6

1 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

2 “Behold, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

3 I have filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship,

4 to devise skillful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze,

5 and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of workmanship.

6 Behold, I myself have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of all who are wise-hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you:

Exodus 39:42–43

42 According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work.

43 Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded. They had done so; and Moses blessed them.

Luke 14:28–30

28 For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it?

29 Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation and isn’t able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him,

30 saying, ‘This man began to build and wasn’t able to finish.’
